 - i. Summary of slide show: History by Jim: 2015-2018 process develops to where we are today. Looking @ where growth should be & align w/ county. 2018 a new flex policy is adopted which 1)guides future growth 2)has sustainability aspects (aligning various uses) Moving Forward by Ella: 1) want to define standards btwn. Res/commercial corridors looking @ transition zones and streetscape designs 2) a longer term approach to connectivity among residential/commercial corridors 3) affordable housing policy (establishing parameters considering % or paying into trust) key features are proximity to services, amenities, transportation noting that spreading across city reduces transportation costs. NEXT: ULDR amendments & drafts to zoning
 - c. Jack Malcom, Harbor Inlet presentation on how the flex zone was adopted
 - i. What commission ended up approving on 3/6/18 is not what CFLCA supported on 2/13/18
 - ii. Presentation includes clips from videos: 6/14/17 PZB commission jt. Mtg., 11/7/17 commission note beach taken out and nothing E of intracoastal on map, 12/20/17 PZ meeting map same as November, 1/23/18 commission waiting for CFLCA everything from barrier island is excluded, 2/13/18 CFLCA supports map w/ nothing East of intracoastal, 3/2018 commission 0 discussion on barrier island and pass w/o opposition the map has 2 added areas east of intracoastal.
 - iii. Malcom is seeking CFLCA resolution calling for City commission to review unified flex strategy and Currie requests his presentation be posted online & transmitted as hyperlink if motion passes or as flash drive if too large to post
 - d. Comments from group & Ella/Hetzel
 - i. Ella/Hetzel understand the concerns of CFLCA and frustration.
 - ii. Group

1. Sorensen told someone was horrific and Dean said will get to bottom of it.
2. This is a process issue. The materials say CFLCA supports something it did not.
3. Lobbyist of 2 areas admits speaking to 4 of 5 commissioners w/o signing it and none of them ever admit speaking to the lobbyist.
4. Concern of sunshine violations. Hetzel says not violation b/c in backup materials

iii. MOTION BY MARILYN MAMMANO 2ND BY LOCKWOOD, 0 OPPOSED & ULMER ABSTAINS B/C HAS NOT SPOKE TO BOARD: Moves that the CFLCA draft a correspondence to the City Commission requesting the 3/6/18 flex unit map be reviewed and that in lieu of the 3/6/18 map the City Commission adopt the same map approved by PZB & CFLCA showing no flex units east of intracoastal.
