

FORT LAUDERDALE

PROFESSIONAL FIREFIGHTERS

Since 1912

Some Facts About The Department

- Department formed in 1912
- 485 F/T Personnel (412 Sworn, 73 Civilian)
- Average of 130 calls per day
- Over 48,000 calls annually
- $97 Million operating Budget

DEPARTMENT OVERVIEW

- 11 STATIONS (soon to be 12)
- 12 ALS ENGINES
- 3 ALS LADDERS
- 16 RESCUE UNITS
- AIRPORT RESCUE FIREFIGHTING (ARFF)
- TECHNICAL RESCUE TEAM
- HAZARDOUS MATERIAL TEAM
- FIRE BOAT/ DIVE TEAM

- CITY DIVIDED UP INTO 3 BATTALIONS
(Battalion 2, Battalion 13, and Battalion 16)

- We are also responsible for Fire Prevention and the Ocean Rescue Lifeguards

- An Accredited Agency
 - CFAI Accreditation (2015)¹
 - CAAS Accreditation (2018)²
 - EMAP Accreditation (2018)³
 - ISO Class 1 Department (2015)⁴
 - City of Fort Lauderdale ISO 9001-(2018)⁵

¹ Commission on Fire Accreditation International

² Commission on Accreditation of Ambulance Services

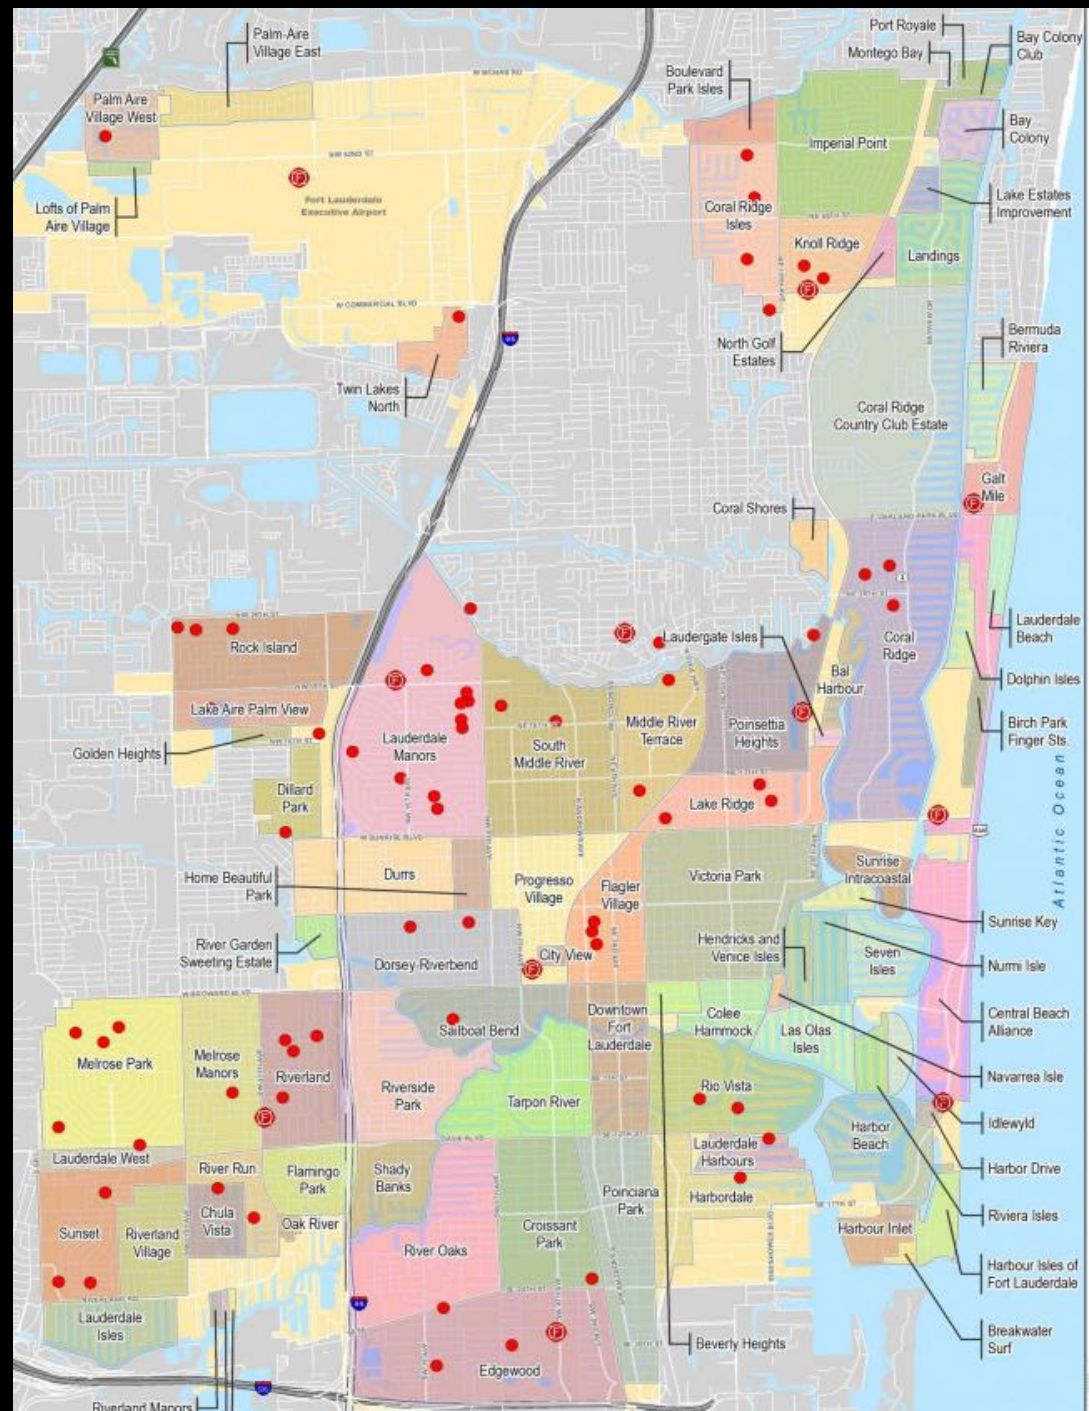

³ Emergency Management Accreditation Program

⁴ Insurance Service Office

⁵ International Standard for Organization

Standard of Coverage

- Standard of Coverage are measuring points that are set through accreditation to gauge how efficiently we are serving our community.
- Our Standard of Coverage for calls in Fort Lauderdale 90% of the time is as follows:
 - On Medical Calls, we strive to be on scene within 6 minutes
 - On Residential Fire Calls, we strive to have 16 people on scene within 10 minutes and 20 second
 - On Commercial Fires, we strive to have 22 people on scene within 14 minutes and 20 seconds

Building a Family

Questions?

CITY OF
FORT LAUDERDALE
OUR VALUES MATTER

INTEGRITY

COMPASSION

ACCOUNTABILITY

RESPECT

EXCELLENCE